WEST VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION OF MUSEUMS

2025 Innovative Programming Award Nomination

We are now accepting nominations for our 2025 Innovative Programing Award. The winner of this award will be an exhibit, project, or program that demonstrates exceptional creativity and innovation in design, interpretation, visitor engagement, and topic/theme.

And anyone may submit a nomination for an exhibit, program, or project. The nominated institution does not need to be a member of WVAM in order to receive this award.

The winning institution will be announced at our conference banquet on the evening of Friday, April 4th.

The deadline for submitting a nomination is March 7th, 2025.

The winner will be determined by vote of an impartial committee and will be judged on their merits within the context of their own institutional capacity.
