

2025 Museum Service Impact Award Nomination

We are now accepting nominations for our 2025 Museum Service Impact Award. The winner of this award will be an individual who has shown dedication to and made a significant impact in a museum or institution, or the statewide museum community.

Anyone may submit a nomination and the nominated individual does not need to be a member of WVAM or represent a member institution in order to receive this award.

The winner will be announced at our conference banquet on the evening of Friday, April 4th.

The deadline for submitting a nomination is March 7th, 2025.

The winner will be determined by vote of an impartial committee and will be judged on their merits within the context of their own institutional capacity.
